

THEFT OF JEWELS CHARGED TO MAID

Princeton (N. J.) Society Woman Has Glibly House Employee Arrested, Alleging She Took $1,150 Worth of Valuables.

LEAVES GEMS IN ROOM ON NIGHT OF ELECTION.

With $150 in Cash They Cannot Be Found When Owner Returns—Accused Girl Tearfully Protests Her Innocence.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy H. Anderson, president in Princeton, N. J., appeared in Jefferson Market Court today as complainant against Lizzie Hal-lock, a chambermaid at the Glibly House, who was arrested on Mrs. Anderson's complaint that jewels valued at $100 and cash to the amount of $150 vanished from her room at the hotel and that the chambermaid was the last person in the room before their disappearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were patrons of the hotel on election night. On returning from the theatre, and before accompanying her husband out to see the crowds, Mrs. Anderson removed a diamond sunburst from her throat, a cluster of pearls from her waist and placed them, with a diamond ring and $150 in gold and banknotes, in a chamber bag, which she left on the bureau.

Girl Protests Innocence.

When she met her husband at a downtown ferry yesterday noon Mrs.
Anderson discovered the chambermaid was not in a handbag she carried. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson returned to the hotel and notified its management of the loss.

Lizzie Hallock said she had found a bag such as Mrs. Anderson described, and, thinking the room had not been surrendered, put it in a bureau drawer.
It was not there when she said she had placed it. The hotel management said she had violated a hotel rule in not reporting the matter to the office. Thereupon she was arrested, though she protested her innocence.

Others in the Room.

When searched nothing to connect her with the disappearance of the property was found on her.

A circumstance in her favor was the assertion of a window cleaner employed at the hotel that he had seen a man and a woman earlier in the day in the room from which the jewels are believed to have been stolen.

Miss Hallock was held on a short arrest in $1,000 bail for examination Saturday. The Andersons could not produce any evidence to-day, and asked the court to postpone the examination until that day.
